

Peg Tumminio
HB 5326

We put our pets to sleep when it is time. It is the compassionate and responsible thing to do. Watching a loved one struggle unnecessarily and wasting personal and government money on someone who cannot get well is senseless.

Have you watched a loved one with ALS, terminal cancer or any terminal illness. We need to ease that struggling for all involved.

We need this bill.
Peg Tumminio